Thinking Through our Faith

- ▶ It takes to deeply know the Scriptures.
- ▶ It takes time to know the power of God.
- ▶ It takes time to challenge with truth.

Matthew 22:23-33

1. Wrong Assumptions

- ▶ Jesus challenged the assumption of the Sadducees.
- ▶ The Sadducees assumed that those whose believed in the resurrection also believed earthly institutions will be into heaven.

2. Like Angels

- ▶ Jesus compares the resurrected state of people to that of angels.
- ▶ Angels do not or have children with each other.

3. The Word uses the Word

- ▶ God does not stop being God when people die.
- ▶ God is the God of the . .

Family Support

Love and support: The family foundation

You can show the children in your family that you love and support them in many ways. When you hug them or say, "I love you," the sentiment is obvious. Paying attention to them, listening to them, and taking an interest in what they're doing are less noticeable ways of giving support. After all, does your child feel supported when you come home from an exhausting day, and he or she wants to talk—but you want a break? The young people closest to you know your body language. They listen to what you say—and don't say. They notice when your words and actions don't match. Make it a point to be sure they hear your message of love and support loud and clear at all times. Family Support is Asset 1 of Search Institute's 40 Developmental Assets, the qualities, experiences, and relationships that help young people grow up healthy, caring, and responsible.

Here are the facts

Research shows that young people are more likely to grow up healthy when their families provide them with high levels of love and support. It's important for parents and guardians to create a home environment that fosters loving words and actions, consistency, and openness. About 68 percent of young people, ages 11–18, say their family life provides high levels of love and support, according to Search Institute surveys. Spending quality time together is the first—and most important—step toward establishing a great family support system.

Please visit www.parentfurther.org for references. NICM is a partner with The Search Institute.
